The result of the nominations was as follows:

Territorial Convention: Samuel Johnson, O.C. Swain, W. H. Coney, Ernest Ross, J. Keohokii.

The factional lines have been so hearly wiped out that in some of the fighting districts there were men put on the tickets whose leanings were not the faction of the facti known to those who named them, and the results were that the conventions will be made up of as many men who will be made up of as many men who have heretofore taken no part in political fights as of those who have been active. Some of the men who have recently resigned from the Republican there had not yet been a meeting of the Territorial committee are again candicular to the present campaign.
